This email is being sent as APOLOGY from me .

Respected Sir,

I am again very Sorry for the happenings . I felt a lot for the pertained Activity. The things happened wrong from my side and I sincerely request you Apology towards the instance.

I have sincerely requested the apology regarding the paper and once again iam extremely sorry for the instance.

Actually we are in a remote area where we don't have research centers and proper guidance in the aspect of research and publications and I just with the intention of learning and gaining the knowledge we have done this instance . We tried only to learn the content and publish the paper without proper guidance.

Once again I sincerely request to provide me some time to rectify the instance by removing the papers from the publishers.

Also I humbly request you to treat me and provide your kindness towards me and I confirm that I will not repeat these type of incidents in my life .

Thereby I humbly request you to consider me and kindly leave me from this incident .

Consider me sir ...
